

The Department of State acknowledges receipt of Note No. 62 of April 3, 2009, from the Embassy of the Republic of Kosovo, which reads as follows:

“The Embassy of the Republic of Kosovo presents its compliments to the United States Department of State and has the honor to propose to the United States Department of State the following agreement:

On reciprocal basis, dependents of employees of the Government of Kosovo assigned to official duty in the United States of America, and dependents of employees of the United States Government assigned to official duty in the Republic of Kosovo, are authorized to be employed in the receiving country.

For the purpose of this agreement,

“Dependents” shall include:

Spouses;

Unmarried dependent children under 21 years of age;

Unmarried dependent children under 23 years of age who are in

Full-time attendance as students at a post-secondary educational institution; and

Unmarried children who are physically or mentally disabled.

For the purposes of this agreement, it is understood that employees assigned to official duty includes diplomatic agents, consular officers, and members of the support staffs assigned to diplomatic missions, consular offices and missions to international organizations.

In case of dependents of employees who seek employment in the Republic of Kosovo, an official request must be made by the United States Embassy in Prishtina to the Kosovo's Ministry of Foreign Affairs, which, after

In case of dependents of employees who seek employment in the United States, an official request must be made by the Embassy of the Republic of Kosovo in Washington to the Office of Protocol in the Department of State. Upon verification that the person is a dependent of an official employee of the Government of the Republic of Kosovo, the Kosovo Embassy will be informed by the Government of the United States that the dependent has permission to accept employment.

The Government of the Republic of Kosovo and the Government of the United States of America waive whatever fees might otherwise be charged in connection with the issuance of employment authorization identification or employment authorization permits.

The Kosovo Government and the United States Government wish to clarify their understanding that dependents who obtain employment under this agreement and who have immunity from jurisdiction of the receiving country in accordance with Article 31 of the Vienna Convention on the Diplomatic Relations or in accordance with the Convention on the Privileges and Immunities of the United Nations, or any other applicable international agreement, have no immunity from civil and administrative jurisdiction with respect to matters arising out of such employment. Such dependents are also liable for payment of income and social security taxes on any remuneration received as a result of employment in the receiving state.

The Embassy of the Republic of Kosovo further proposes that, if these understandings are acceptable to the Government of the United States, this note and the Government of the United States' reply concurring therein shall constitute an agreement between our two governments which shall enter into force on the date of that reply note. This agreement shall remain in force until ninety days after the date of the written notification from either government to the other of intention to terminate.

The Embassy of the Republic of Kosovo takes this opportunity to renew to the United States Department of State the assurances of its highest consideration."

The Department therefore informs the Embassy that the proposals contained in the Embassy's diplomatic note are acceptable to the Government of the United States and that, accordingly, the Embassy's note and this note in reply concurring therein shall constitute an agreement between the two Governments that shall enter into force on the date of this note, which shall remain in force until ninety days after the date of the written notification from either Government to the other of its intention to terminate the Agreement.

Unmarried children who are physically or mentally disabled.

For the purposes of this agreement, it is understood that employees assigned to official duty includes diplomatic agents, consular officers, and members of the support staffs assigned to diplomatic missions, consular offices and missions to international organizations.

In case of dependents of employees who seek employment in the Republic of Kosovo, an official request must be made by the United States Embassy in Prishtina to the Kosovo’s Ministry of Foreign Affairs, which, after verification that the person is a dependent of an official employee of the United States Government, shall then inform the United States Embassy that the dependent may accept employment.

In case of dependents of employees who seek employment in the United States, an official request must be made by the Embassy of the Republic of Kosovo in Washington to the Office of Protocol in the Department of State. Upon verification that the person is a dependent of an official employee of the Government of the Republic of Kosovo, the Kosovo Embassy will be informed by the Government of the United States that the dependent has permission to accept employment.

The Government of the Republic of Kosovo and the Government of the United States of America waive whatever fees might otherwise be charged in connection with the issuance of employment authorization identification or employment authorization permits.

The Government of the Republic of Kosovo and the United States Government wish to clarify their understanding that dependents who obtain employment under this agreement and who have immunity from jurisdiction of the receiving country in accordance with Article 31 of the Vienna Convention on the Diplomatic Relations or in accordance with the Convention on the Privileges and Immunities of the United Nations, or any other applicable international agreement, have no immunity from civil and administrative jurisdiction with respect to matters arising out of such employment. Such dependents are also liable for payment of income and social security taxes on any remuneration received as a result of employment in the receiving state.

The Embassy of the Republic of Kosovo further proposes that, if these understandings are acceptable to the Government of the United States, this note and the Government of the United States' reply concurring therein shall constitute an agreement between our two governments which shall enter into force on the date of that reply note. This agreement shall remain in force until ninety days after the date of the written notification from either government to the other of intention to terminate."

The Embassy of the Republic of Kosovo takes this opportunity to renew to the United States Department of State the assurances of its highest consideration.
