

Earth Day 2011: Women and the Green Economy

IN HONOR OF EARTH DAY, THE DEPARTMENT OF STATE INVITES YOU TO ATTEND

WOMEN AND THE GREEN ECONOMY SPEAKER EVENT

MARIA OTERO

Under Secretary,
U.S. Department of State

KIT BATTEN

Global Climate Change
Coordinator, USAID

KATHLEEN ROGERS

President, Earth Day Network

BETH COLLETON

Vice President of Greening,
NBC Universal

Women working in a plantage north of Chapora river (Goa, India). Picture by Dominik Hundhammer, February 2003

The State Department's "Women and the Green Economy" speaker event will highlight the role of women around the world in promoting a green economy and mark the second anniversary of Secretary Clinton's Greening Diplomacy Initiative.

TUESDAY, APRIL 26 2:30-3:30

ARRIVE BETWEEN 2:00-2:15PM AT HARRY S. TRUMAN BUILDING 21ST ST ENTRANCE (map)

U.S. DEPARTMENT OF STATE, GEORGE MARSHALL
AUDITORIUM

To RSVP, VISIT this link OR EMAIL earthday@state.gov