

“United Nations police provide an invaluable service to worldwide peace and security. U.S. law enforcement officers further law and order in post-conflict states and support the interests of the United States through participation in UN peacekeeping missions.”

—Assistant Secretary William R. Brownfield

INL: INTERNATIONAL LAW ENFORCEMENT OPPORTUNITIES WITH THE UNITED NATIONS

MAKING A DIFFERENCE AROUND THE WORLD

U.S. DEPARTMENT OF STATE

Bureau of International Narcotics and Law Enforcement Affairs (INL)

INL INTERNATIONAL LAW ENFORCEMENT OPPORTUNITIES WITH THE UNITED NATIONS

The U.S. Department of State, Bureau of International Narcotics and Law Enforcement Affairs (INL) actively seeks experienced, qualified law enforcement professionals for two types of positions in the United Nations Police Division (UNPOL):

1 US CONTRIBUTIONS TO UN PEACEKEEPING MISSIONS:

Mid- to senior-level positions in the areas of administration, Management, and leadership as U.S. contributions to UNPOL components of UN peacekeeping missions overseas. Assignments are for one year;

2 PROFESSIONAL POLICE POSITIONS WITH THE UN:

Positions as UN employees, assigned to UN headquarters in New York, UN regional offices, or in UN peacekeeping missions overseas, are competed among UN Member States. U.S. candidates are selected for nomination to the UN by the U.S. Department of State. Assignments are for one to two years.

NOMINATIONS BY THE US DEPARTMENT OF STATE

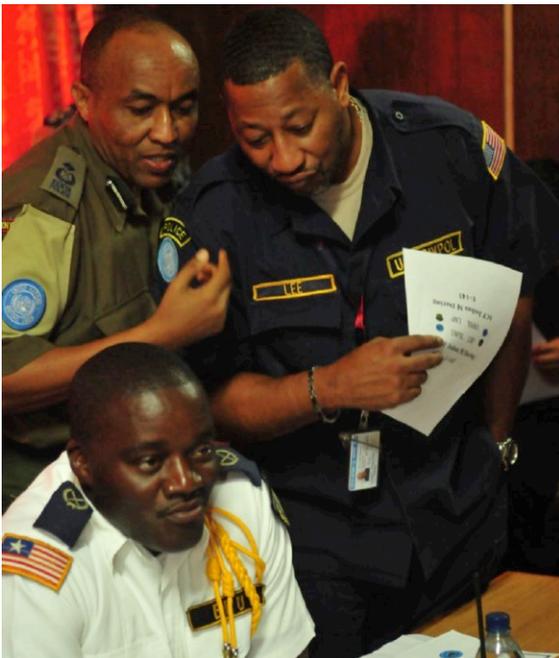

Positions for senior professional subject matter experts often require specialized police experience in UN missions overseas, or in UN administrative offices. Candidates are endorsed by the U.S. Department of State through a formal diplomatic process and, if selected by the UN, are hired directly into the UN human resources system as UN employees on temporary appointments of one to two years. If selected, officers serve at UN headquarters in New York; the Standing Police Capacity facility in Brindisi, Italy; or in a current UN peacekeeping mission around the world.

UNITED NATIONS REQUIREMENTS FOR PROFESSIONAL-LEVEL POSITIONS:

INL is seeking serving, former, and recently retired U.S. law enforcement professionals with the experience and skills to be competitive for international assignments. Competitive applicants for UN service should meet the following UN minimum criteria:

- + Age range of 25-62 years, with a preference for candidates under 55;
- + More than five years of experience as a sworn law enforcement official, excluding academy training;
- + Active service within the last five years;
- + Graduation from a certified police academy, or other law enforcement training institution or program;
- + Bachelor's degree from a four-year accredited academic institution; and
- + Willing to relocate.

For more information, please visit the UNPOL website at www.un.org/en/peacekeeping/sites/police/index.shtml

IN ADDITION TO UN REQUIREMENTS, INL SEEKS INDIVIDUALS WITH THE FOLLOWING QUALIFICATIONS:

- + Knowledge of a language (in addition to English) identified by the UN as a critical requirement for the position;
- + Master's degree or equivalent in the applied sciences, social sciences, or other relevant field from an accredited university or academic institution;
- + Peacekeeping or other international experience in the UN or in other international or regional organizations;
- + Specialized experience in one or more of the following areas:
 - Law Enforcement Management
 - Law Enforcement Operational Planning
 - Organizational and Human Resources Management
 - Strategic Planning
 - Budget Development and Management
 - Procurement and Asset Management
 - Monitoring and Evaluation
 - Law Enforcement Training and Development
 - Law Enforcement Capacity Building
 - Law Enforcement Recruitment and Selection
 - Serious and Organized Crime Investigations
 - Crime Scene Management/Forensics

The UN highly encourages female candidates to apply.

MAP OF UN OFFICES AND MISSIONS

IF YOU ARE INTERESTED IN SUBMITTING A RESUME, OR LEARN MORE ABOUT SERVICE AS A U.S. CANDIDATE IN THE UNITED NATIONS POLICE DIVISION PLEASE E-MAIL: UNPOL-VACANCIES@STATE.GOV.

U.S. DEPARTMENT OF STATE

Bureau of International Narcotics and Law Enforcement Affairs (INL)