Agreement on the Status of the North Atlantic Treaty Organisation, National Representatives and International Staff

Done: Ottawa; September 20, 1951

Entry into force: May 18, 1954

In accordance with Article 26, the Agreement shall be open for signature by Member States of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization and shall be subject to ratification. Instruments of ratification shall be deposited with the Government of the United States of America. The Agreement entered into force for signatory States ratifying the Agreement as soon as six signatory States deposited their instruments of ratification. The Agreement comes into force in respect of each other signatory State on the date of the deposit of its instrument of ratification.

Notes:

An Extract from the Summary Record of a meeting of the North Atlantic Council Deputies, signed on December 12, 1951, notes discrepancies between the English and French texts of Articles 14 and 16 of the Agreement. The Extract records the agreement by the Council Deputies on behalf of their Governments that the English text of Articles 14 and 16 is correct and that the French text should be corrected to conform with the English text. The Extract reproduces those articles in the French text of the Agreement with the agreed corrections.

An Agreed Minute was signed by the North Atlantic Council Deputies on April 4, 1952 to transfer the functions of the Chairman of the Council Deputies under this Agreement to the Secretary-General of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (or the Secretary-General's deputy or any such other person as the North Atlantic Council may decide) in consequence of the NATO reorganization which abolished the office of Chairman of the Council Deputies.

Legend: (no mark) = ratification; w = withdrawal or equivalent action

“On signing the Agreement of today’s date regarding the Status of the North Atlantic Treaty Organisation, National Representatives and International Staff, the Plenipotentiaries of the Kingdom of Belgium, the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg and the Kingdom of the Netherlands, make the following Declaration:

“The nationals of the Kingdom of Belgium, the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg and the Kingdom of the Netherlands may not avail themselves of the provisions of the present Agreement to claim in the territory of one of these aforementioned Powers any exemption which they do not enjoy in their own territory with respect to duties, taxes and other dues which have been or will be standardised by virtue of conventions which have been or will be concluded for the purposes of bringing about the Economic Union of Belgium, Luxembourg and the Netherlands.”

The instrument of ratification of the Agreement by Belgium includes the foregoing declaration.

The instrument of ratification of the Agreement by Belgium was accompanied by the following statement, an English translation of which reads as follows:

“In depositing the instruments of ratification by Belgium regarding the Status of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, National Representatives and International Staff and the declaration of the Belgian, Luxembourg and Netherland Governments, signed at Ottawa, September 20, 1951, I have the honor to formulate the following reservation:

““With respect to the fiscal status of the employees of the Organization, as defined in Article 19 of the Agreement, Belgium reserves the right at a later date to request its revision, with a view to providing for the taxation, by the Organization itself and to its profit, of the salaries and fees that it pays its employees, as well as for adequate measures to prevent the double taxation of the said salaries and fees.””

² At the time of signature of the Agreement, Luxembourg signed, with Belgium and the Netherlands, a document which reads as follows:

“On signing the Agreement of today’s date regarding the Status of the North Atlantic Treaty Organisation, National Representatives and International Staff, the Plenipotentiaries of the Kingdom of Belgium, the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg and the Kingdom of the Netherlands, make the following Declaration:

“The nationals of the Kingdom of Belgium, the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg and the Kingdom of the Netherlands may not avail themselves of the provisions of the present Agreement to claim in the territory of one of these aforementioned Powers any exemption which they do not enjoy in their own territory with respect to duties, taxes and other dues which have been or will be standardised by virtue of conventions which have been or will be concluded for the purposes of bringing about the Economic Union of Belgium, Luxembourg and the Netherlands.”

The instrument of ratification of the Agreement by Luxembourg includes the foregoing declaration.
