

KAV 5505

Temp. State Dept. No. 99-90

MONGOLIA

Employment of dependents of official government employees

Agreement concerning the employment of dependents of official government employees. Exchange of notes at Ulaanbaatar March 24 and April 5, 1999. Entered into force April 5, 1999.

№ A- 99/262

The Ministry of External Relations of Mongolia presents its compliments to the Embassy of the United States of America and has the honour to acknowledge receipt of the note of the Embassy #34/99 dated on March 24, 1999, which reads as follows:

" The Embassy of the United States of America presents its compliments to the Ministry of External Relations of Mongolia and has the honour to reiterate that, on a reciprocal basis, dependents of official employees of the United States Government assigned to official duty in Mongolia and dependents of official employees of the Mongolian Government assigned to official duty in the United States of America be authorised to be employed in the receiving state.

For the purpose of this Agreement, "Dependents" shall mean:

Spouses;

Unmarried dependent children under 21 years of age;

Unmarried dependent children under 23 years of age who are in full-time attendance as students at a post-secondary educational institutions; and

Unmarried children who are physically or mentally disabled.

For the purpose of this Agreement, official employees shall mean diplomatic agents, consular officers, and member of support staffs, assigned to diplomatic mission, consular officers, and missions to international organizations.

In the case of dependents who seek employment in the United States, an official request must be made by the Embassy of Mongolia in Washington or the Mongolian Mission to the United Nations in New York to the Office of Protocol in the Department of State. After processing the official request, the Embassy or UN Mission will be informed that the dependent may accept employment.

In the case of dependents who seek employment in Mongolia, an official request must be made by the United States Embassy in Ulaanbaatar to the Ministry of External Relations of Mongolia. After processing the official request, United States Embassy will be informed that the dependent may accept employment.

EMBASSY OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA
ULAANBAATAR

The Government of Mongolia and the United States Government wish to confirm their understanding that dependents who obtain employment under this Agreement and who have immunity from the jurisdiction of the receiving state in accordance with the Vienna Convention on Diplomatic Relations or the Conventions on the Privileges and Immunities of the United Nations, or any other applicable international Agreement, have no immunity from civil or administrative jurisdiction with respect to matters arising out of such employment. Such dependents are also responsible for payment of income and social security taxes on any remuneration received as a result of employment in the receiving state. Dependents continue to enjoy all other privileges and immunities to which they are entitled."

In reply the Ministry has the honour to state that the provisions set forth in the mentioned note are acceptable and that the Government of Mongolia concurs in the proposal that the note of the Embassy and this reply constitute an agreement between our two Governments on this subject, the agreement to come into force on the date of this note and to remain in force until ninety days after the date of the written notification from either Government to the other of intention to terminate.

The Ministry of External Relations of Mongolia avails itself of this opportunity to renew to the Embassy of the United States of America the assurances of its highest consideration.

5 April, 1999
Ulaanbaatar

EMBASSY OF THE
UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

34/99.

The Embassy of the United States of America presents its compliments to the Ministry of External Relations of Mongolia and has the honor to reiterate that, on a reciprocal basis, dependents of official employees of the United States Government assigned to official duty in Mongolia and dependents of official employees of the Mongolian Government assigned to official duty in the United States of America be authorized to be employed in the receiving state.

For the purpose of this Agreement, "Dependents" shall mean:

Spouses;

Unmarried dependent children under 21 years of age;

Unmarried dependent children under 23 years of age who are in full-time attendance as students at a post-secondary educational institution; and

Unmarried children who are physically or mentally disabled.

For the purpose of this Agreement, official employees shall mean diplomatic agents, consular officers, and member of support staffs, assigned to diplomatic mission, consular offices and missions to international organizations.

In the case of dependents who seek employment in the United States, an official request must be made by the Embassy of Mongolia in Washington or the Mongolian Mission to the United Nations in New York to the Office of Protocol in the Department of State. After processing the official request, the Embassy or UN Mission will be informed that the dependent may accept employment.

In the case of dependents who seek employment in Mongolia, the request shall be made by the United States Embassy in Ulaanbaatar to the Ministry of External Relations. After processing the official request, United States Embassy will be informed that the dependent may accept employment.

The United States Government and the Government of Mongolia wish to confirm their understanding that dependents who obtain employment under this Agreement and who have immunity from the jurisdiction of the receiving state in accordance with the Vienna Convention on Diplomatic Relations or the Conventions on the Privileges and Immunities of the United Nations, or any other applicable international Agreement, have no immunity from civil or administrative jurisdiction with respect to matters arising out of such employment. Such dependents are also responsible for payment of income and social security taxes on any remuneration received as a result of employment in the receiving state. Dependents continue to enjoy all other privileges and immunities to which they are entitled.

EMBASSY OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA
MARCH 24, 1999
ULAANBAATAR, MONGOLIA

The Embassy further proposes that, if these provisions are acceptable to the Government of Mongolia, this note and the Mongolian Government's reply concurring therein shall constitute an Agreement between the two Governments which shall enter into force on the date of that reply note and shall remain in force until ninety days after the date of the written notification from either Government to the other of intention to terminate.

The Embassy of the United States of America wishes to avail itself of this opportunity to renew to the Ministry of External Relations the assurances of its highest consideration.

